

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Have been built and actually delivered to retail buyers since August 1, 1916. The figures—320,817—represent the actual number of cars manufactured by us since August 1st 1916, and delivered by our agents to retail buyers. This unusual fall and winter demand for FORD cars makes it necessary for us to confine the distribution of cars only to those agents who have orders for immediate delivery to retail customers, rather than to permit any agent to stock cars in anticipation of later spring sales.

We are issuing this notice to intending buyers that they may protect themselves against delay or disappointment in securing a FORD car. If, therefore, you are planning to purchase a FORD car, we advise you to place your order and take delivery now.

IMMEDIATE ORDERS WILL HAVE PROMPT ATTENTION.

Delay in buying at this time may cause you to wait several months. Enter your order to-day for immediate delivery with our authorized FORD agent listed below and don't be disappointed later on.

PRICES:

Runabout $345, Touring Car, $360, Coupelet $505
Town Car $595, Sedan $545, f. o. b. Detroit.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

Consider that your visitors come to see you, and not your pantry.

Let the children have a good time—childhood does not last long. Age is incapable of the fine enthusiasm of youth.

A hotel is often more a home than a palace. If the spirit of congenial friendship links not the hearts of the inmates of a dwelling it is not home.

Times are not near so hard with some men when they want a plug of tobacco as when their wives ask for a pair of shoes.

In a world where God lets the sun shine, the birds sing and the flowers make happy love to each other, man should not be the only saddened object.

Let the path of life start whence it may, and let the way be steep and thorny if it must, there are sunny fields far up the heights for those who have faith and resolution to climb them.

Parents often say, "I live for my children." They should do more than that—they should live with their children, letting their boys and girls feel that their interests are their parents' interests also.

What is needed most of all in bringing up children is example. What they see and hear and take in by absorption in their young years, will, in most cases become the ruling traits of their lives.

How many hungry hearts there are in the world hungering for recognition, for a word of praise! The hungriest heart in this world is an unpraised woman whose husband never gives her a word of praise.

A man thinks he knows it all, until a woman begins to enlighten him.

We often wonder why it is so many young men can be seen loafing upon our streets until a late hour of night. Many of them are from our best homes. The fathers of these young men, many of them at least, are numbered among our best citizens. If their cow or their horse or even their favorite dog was away from home after dark they would be out on a search, but their own children can roam the town all night with apparently no effort being made to find them.

When young people go into an engagement for life as carelessly as they go to a picnic, they must expect to pay for their folly with their bitter experience. With thousands, a marriage engagement is a matter of boyish or girlish caprice. If wise marriages are made in heaven, then the hasty, loose selfish sort are the handwork of the devil.

Henry Ward Beecher once said, "I think I am more grateful to God for mother and sisters of the substantial integrity, purity and nobility of womanhood, than for almost anything else in this world. After a long life I can say that I have not lost faith in woman. The longer I live the more chivalric is my regard for them. I should look upon it as a fatal canker in my soul if I fell from my confidence in the general trustworthiness, honesty, honor and charity of womanhood. Therefore, when I hear young men, of men in middle life, or old men, cast gross aspersions on the character of women, I feel as if I were in a den of hissing serpents.

Have you noticed how large a number of persons with whom you stop to have a little chat, speak of the dark blotches of human nature in the lives of someone? We will not except the person of the highest moral standing in the community. Nine out of every ten persons in a ten minutes' talk will bring up the defects in some one's life, and one out of a hundred may possibly startle you by speaking of the good that may be found in most every individual. There is no life without its defects, neither without its excellencies, and what a different coloring it would give to humanity if the rule was reversed to what it is. And, reader, it rests with you and us to start the reform, and with such a good start as we may be able to give it, we are sure it will be contagious if we persevere. For when neighbors speak naught of ill and only laud the good that is in us we will not be far from that glorious period dominated the millennium.

Don't let all the sunshine in nature become cloudy since you are growing older.

The strength of a nation is in the intelligent and well-ordered homes of the people.

No one is useless in this world who lightens the burdens of it for another.

How much of your success do you owe to your wife? It is only just to own this fact before her day by day. It will make her happy and keep her youthful.

He is a selfish being who having trouble in his trade or calling or profession, always brings his troubles home for the purpose of making everyone else miserable.

LUKE M'LUKE SAYS:

You may not realize it. But you fool yourself oftener than you fool others. Prayer is all right in its place. But the man who gets up and huddles receives more than the man who remains on his knees.

A girl can talk Culture to us all day. But that doesn't keep us from believing that she shames in her sleep.

When you see a woman who is dressed up like a Circus Horse and who is accompanied by a shabby-looking man who resembles a Door Mat, you know who opens the Pay Envelope in that family.

As a mouse is a queer animal. He either wants to hug you and kiss you or else he wants to knock your block off.

You may convince a Princess that her hair will be gray some day. But you can't convince her that some day that dimple will be a wrinkle.

A girl believes that she is worth her weight in gold. But she wouldn't be fat for anything.

You can learn more about a girl by being married to her for ten minutes than you can by being engaged to her for ten years.

Once Upon a Time there was a man who didn't expect too much from his friends. All Fairy Tales begin with once-upon-a-time.

The men who have axes to grind never have any trouble finding suckers to turn the grindstone for them.

There is a silver lining to every cloud. A deaf man can't hear his wife nagging him when she gets mad at him.

It makes a girl made all over when Mother insists upon cooking onions for supper the night her fellow is going to call on her.

THREE YEARS' SAVINGS

Of Herself and Husband Used By Woman To Kindle a Fire.

Alliance, Ohio, May 24.—Mrs. Rosa Clefther wishes she and her husband had invested their three years' savings, $650, in liberty loan bonds. Last night she placed three $100 bills, six $50 and five $10 bills in a handkerchief under her pillow. To-day she unintentionally gathered up the handkerchief along with some newspapers, and used it to start a furnace fire. Not even the ashes of the currency remained.

That is what happens to people who do not deposit their money in bank.

DELCO-LIGHT

ELECTRICITY FOR EVERY FARM

DELCO-LIGHT MAKES ELECTRICITY UNIVERSAL

For the first time electric light and power are available to anyone—anywhere. Heretofore, the benefits of electricity have been confined to those who live in the larger towns and cities. Now Delco-Light makes electric current universally available.

Delco-Light is today furnishing thousands of farm-houses with brilliant, convenient, safe and economical light. It is furnishing power to operate pumps, washing machines, churns, cream separators, milking machines, vacuum cleaners, etc. It is lighting country churches, stores and public halls. It is furnishing light and power to summer homes and camps, to houseboats and yachts, etc.

It is lighting rural railway stations and construction camps. It is lighting the camps of United States troops on the Mexican border and it is disclosing heretofore undreamed-of beauties in the depths of Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. Altogether, over 15,000 Delco-Light plants are in operation, and Delco-Light offices are to be found in almost every part of the world.

Delco-Light is a complete electric plant—the engine and dynamo in one compact unit combined with a set of specially built and wonderfully efficient batteries for the storing of current. The plant is so simple a child can care for it, and so economical that it actually pays for itself in time and labor saved. It operates on either kerosene, gasoline or natural gas.

Price with standard size batteries.....$275.00
Price with large size batteries.....$325.00
